HSE INTERNATIONAL PREPARATORY PROGRAMMES

Welcome to HSE International Preparatory Programmes!

Since 2015 HSE's International Preparatory Programmes train international students with little or no knowledge of Russian before they begin Russian-taught full-degree programmes. Upon completing Preparatory Programme, students are expected to possess intermediate-level language skills (CEFR level B1, TRKI level 1) and be ready to enter the Russian-taught full-degree programs at HSE and other Russian universities.

We have a wonderful team of highly-qualified and dedicated teachers, who use the latest study materials, communicative approach and a great variety of interactive teaching methods.

Choose HSE International Preparatory Programmes, if you want to:

- learn Russian to have more chances in future career
- improve your Russian language skills
- begin to study in one of the top Russian universities – HSE University
- or another Russian university .

HSE International Preparatory programmes is your chance to:

- study Russian language at many different levels (A0-C2)
- acquire language skills for admission to HSE or another Russian university
- complete a general preparatory course in thematic disciplines: mathematics, physics, computer science, literature, history, social studies
- prepare to study at HSE University in full-degree programs in academic tracks devoted to humanities, economics, and engineering and technology
- discover study opportunities at HSE and join the brightest student
- meet Russian culture and traditions
- live in Moscow - a vibrant, modern city, rich in culture and full of history
- AND to have a discount for full-degree programmes

We are waiting for talented and motivated candidates!

Study for free

Students who receive Russian government scholarships can study in the preparatory programme for free if they do not know Russian language well enough to enroll in a Russian-taught full-degree programme. It is only possible to apply for full-tuition scholarships only through their local Rossotrudnichestvo branch.
